IBA AMAN CED in collaboration with the World Bank Group presents Entrepreneurship Educators Symposium 2016. The symposium aims to bring forth various local and international academicians, practitioners, policy makers and industry specialists for a day long discovery of new academic paradigm in the field of Entrepreneurship.

AGENDA:

- The role of educational institutions in Entrepreneurship development.
- Women and their shifting role in Entrepreneurship.
- Technology and Entrepreneurship: Business incubators in Pakistan.
- Latest academic research in the field of Entrepreneurship.
PROSPECTIVE SPEAKERS:

Dr. Shahid Qureshi
Assistant Professor,
Program Director AMAN-CED

Gerritt Ribbink
Technical Team Lead Entrepreneurship
Enclude Solutions

Dr. Amanda Bullough
Assistant Professor of Management &
President of Women in the Academy of International Business
University of Delaware

Dr. Miles Davis
Dean, Management Professor,
Harry F. Byrd, Jr. School of Business
Shenandoah University

Dr. M. Shehreyar Shahid
Assistant Professor (Entrepreneurship)
Suleman Dawood School of Business,
LUMS.

Institute of Business Administration
Main Campus, University Road,
Karachi, Pakistan.

Symposium Investment:
Rs. 7,500/- per participant.

RSVP
Soha Zulfiqar
szulfiqar@iba.edu.pk
Contact No# : 92-21-38104700 Ext #2708

For Registration and Details: tinyurl.com/EducatorsSymposium

Seats are limited. Send in your nominations early. Seats will be awarded on a first come first serve basis.